About Our Rolle, Switzerland Lab

Opened in 2017, our Rolle, Switzerland Laboratory is NeoGenomics' first international laboratory. The laboratory is located in the Canton of Vaud, a unique, French-speaking area just outside of Geneva. This expansion brings NeoGenomics' unique Pharma Services menu to the European market and benefits clients by offering greater continuity of services for European-based clinical trials.

Location

A-One Business Center

Bâtiment A5 (second floor), Z.A. La Pièce
1180 Rolle, Switzerland

Phone: +41.21.721.06.00

Fax: +41.21.826.00.73

Located in Rolle, the laboratory is situated 30 km from Geneva and its international airport, 25 km from Lausanne, 1 km from the A1 motorway exit, and 1.4 km from Rolle train station.

Please register at the front desk upon arrival. All visitors must be escorted at all times.

Directions

Train: Trains run every 30 minutes from Geneva and Lausanne during rush hours. Please get off at Rolle Train Station. From Rolle Train Station, the laboratory can be reached by bus or taxi (see below).

Bus: The La Pièce bus stop, directly in front of the A-One complex, connects the laboratory to the Rolle train station (less than 5 minutes away) and its town center.

By Car from Geneva: Follow A1 toward Rolle and take the 13-Rolle exit toward Gimel. Turn left onto Route de la Vallée. At the roundabout, take the 3rd exit onto Route de l'Etraz. At the next roundabout, take the 3rd exit onto Z. A. La Pièce. The A-One Business Center, La Pièce, is on the right-hand side. Parking spaces are available on site.
